

Permission granted for 2.9m Shire Hall tourist attraction

PLANNING permission has been granted for a £2.9million project to transform Dorchester's old Shire Hall into a tourist centre – which will include a new Tourist Information Centre for Dorchester.

The courtroom was the scene of the trial of the Tolpuddle Martyrs in 1834, whose sentence of transportation for forming a union caused outrage and changed the face of industrial relations.

Writer Thomas Hardy sat on the bench as a magistrate, and the court was in use until 1955.

West Dorset District Council has led funding bids for the project, pledging match funding of £1.1million, and submitting a funding bid for more than £1million to the Heritage Lottery Fund.

The Secretary of State

by Trevor Bevens

is currently being asked to approve listed building consent for the scheme.

As a visitor attraction Shire Hall will offer visitors the chance to encounter the harsh atmosphere of the old criminal justice process with "living exhibits" and performances. There will also be educational facilities, a café and gallery.

The building was part of West Dorset District Council's offices until 2013. It was built in 1797 and contained two courts, cells, including the dark and oppressive cells where the Tolpuddle Martyrs were held, and a Grand Jury Room.

English Heritage, the Dorchester Civic Society, the TUC, Dorset County Museum, Dorchester Arts and the Thomas

Hardy Society have supported the scheme.

The London Dorchester Committee Trust (LDCT) will manage and run Shire Hall under a lease from the owners, West Dorset District Council.

The attraction is set to open in summer 2017.

Trust chairman John

Russell said: "Shire Hall is a unique part of British heritage. The Tolpuddle Martyrs' fight for decent wages and working conditions is as important in its way as the signing of Magna Carta."

"Some of the questions Shire Hall's history raises about justice and oppression are still very relevant today. This project aims to blow the cobwebs off and bring alive the building's many stories, as well as conserving the actual bricks and mortar."

Last weekend (July 19th and 20th) the old court and cells were open as part of the Tolpuddle Martyrs Festival Weekend.

BARBARA Scott is the founder and owner of Circaroma Organic Skincare as a result of her work in classical aromatherapy.

Prior to starting her own business, Barbara worked for 10 years in social housing before moving down to Dorset from London in 2008 with her husband of 23 years.

● WHAT made you want to go into business on your own?

I trained as a classical aromatherapist in 1996 and ran my own practice for a while but what I really loved was creating the oils and aromatic blends. I then ran a market stall at Spitalfields Organic Market in London, selling my own products I had made on my kitchen table.

● YOUR products have won many awards. What is the secret to success?

When we started out we were very lucky to be interviewed by Jo Fairley – the founder of Green & Blacks Chocolate – who is a renowned beauty journalist. She loved one of our products, which really got us noticed. This encouraged us to enter the beauty award arena and we have done consistently well considering we are a small brand. I think this is because we use very high quality ingredients in our products and they smell fabulous!

● WHAT is your favourite skincare product?

My favourite product is our gentle facial serum as it is so pure and sinks into the skin instantly. Because it contains no water it really moisturises and feeds the skin with a little going a long way. A very close second would be our soothing facial cleansing balm which is the best type of product to really clean your skin and can also double as a moisturiser.

● DO you have any interests or hobbies outside of skincare?

I am a trustee of a charity called Climb Any Mountain, which is raising money to bring supported housing to South Africa and I am also director of an organisation called Familiora, which is committed to transforming communication in communities and families. These are both part-time roles but do take up a fair bit of my time. I also return to London regularly as we have a house

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

there, my sons live there and London is my spiritual home (as much as I love Dorset!)

● WHAT is the scariest or most exciting thing that has ever happened to you?

I gave a talk to a women's conference in London some years ago at the Café Royal and there were 400 women in attendance. It was amazing to be able to tell my story to so many and not too scary as I had prepared very well. A close second is the two sky dives I have done.

● WHAT are the three items you would want with you on a desert island and why?

An endless supply of coconut oil to cleanse, moisturise and cook with, a cat because they calm the mind and they are very good at sensing intruders, and a large cashmere blanket because you are never cold with cashmere.

Reported crime down across county

MORE than a hundred crimes are being reported to Dorset Police each day in the county – but the figures are six per cent less than last year.

Most crimes being reported to police have dropped – although reports of sexual offences have increased, largely due to national publicity about historic cases of sexual abuse.

Burglaries of people's home in the county have dropped by nine per cent during the year – although more than half do not result in a prosecution – the county wide figures have gone down from 1,899 to 1,715.

Vehicle crime has fallen by 15.8 per cent, with 4,204 recorded offences compared to 4,992 last year, and serious violent crime has decreased by 4.7 per cent.

But there was an increase in sexual offences with 33 more crimes being reported, a rise of 5.8 per cent.

Assistant Chief Constable David Lewis said: "I am delighted that crime continues to fall across the county.

by Trevor Bevins

"These figures show that there were 2,313 fewer crimes reported to Dorset Police between April and March 2013/14 compared to the same period last year.

"We continue to work together with local communities and other public services to make Dorset safer, and it is by working in close partnership that we have been able to achieve this reduction in crime.

"Despite these encouraging statistics we are not complacent, and there are challenges that the Force is working to overcome as we head towards 2015.

"There were 33 more serious sexual offences compared to the same period last year. Although this shows that victims have greater confidence in reporting these offences to us, we remain focused in our response to prosecute offenders and ensure that victims have the best possible support.

"Cyber-crime also presents a new and growing challenge, with criminals using technology to commit offences. We have developed plans to respond to this threat in Dorset and across borders with other forces in the south west and the rest of the country."

Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner Martyn Underhill said: "The continued long term fall in overall crime is welcome, building on the reductions we have seen over the last decade and more.

"This report shows that Dorset Police are working hard to cut crime and keep our communities safe. It is especially encouraging to see significant decreases in dwelling burglaries and vehicle crime, which can have a negative impact on communities.

"The increase in sexual offences suggests that recent cases involving Jimmy Savile and other high profile individuals, has encouraged more victims to come forward to report abuse.

"We have dedicated support in Dorset which will ensure that these victims are supported through the criminal justice process."

Campaign to stop privatisation of pathology lab

HEALTH campaigners are continuing to press Dorset County Hospital over the way decisions are being taken which could lead to the closure of the majority of pathology lab services there.

Around 50 protesters brought the campaign to the steps of the Dorchester hospital at the weekend.

They will now write to GPs and to Clinical Commissioning Group Locality Teams to ask them to consider the impact of privatising the service.

GPs are also being asked to display posters in their waiting rooms urging patient to write and oppose privatising the pathology service.

Some campaigners claim the current service within in the hospital is being disadvantaged and that some of the decisions taken are not democratic or open to examination by the public or to those directly involved who could lose their jobs.

Councillor Ros Kayes, one of the founders of the Dorset Health Campaign, has drafted a letter for GPs and Commissioners.

In it she says: "A discussion recently with Jeffrey Ellwood, chairman of DCHFT and Jean O'Callaghan, Chief Exec, has made it quite clear to us that one of the issues involved for DCH is the concern that the lab, if it remains in Dorchester, would not be sustainable should it lose the custom of General Practitioners, were they to choose to look elsewhere for a cheaper service.

"However, we have also received information from a senior clinician at the lab which suggests that there has been little dialogue with the CCG, or its Locality Teams, concerning this issue.

"We wanted to ask you please therefore to draw your team's attention to the possible knock-on effects should the services currently provided by the lab go into the private sector and be run from Taunton, which is the expected preferred option."

Ms Kayes says in the letter that there are doubts about the claims of short-term cost savings and that elsewhere privatising the service has often seen private laboratories return to the contracting body to ask for further finance.

"We believe that this has profound implications both for DCH and for individual general practices, should they go down the road of working with a private provider.

"Should the DCH Lab be substantially reduced in size and capability, the element of competition provided by the public sector to keep down the costs offered by private providers will be gone forever."

Meanwhile there has been criticism of the Trust for refusing to release details of which private companies has tendered for the service.

Patient Governor Andy Hutchings, from Weymouth, says he cannot understand why, as a Governor, he is not able to know the value of the contract and who has tendered for it.

But the hospital's director of finance and resources, Libby Walters, says if the hospital released the information, it would compromise the hospital as an organisation – although some basic details will become known once the contract is awarded.

Said County Hospital chief executive, Jean O'Callaghan: "The Trust is using a tender process to assess whether the existing pathology service is providing best value. We have the option of going with a bid or leaving our service as it is.

"The outcome of this process will not be finalised before the end of September 2014 and it will be the Trust Board that takes the decision.

More than 4,000 people have signed petitions to leave the service at the hospital as it is.

■ Campaigners outside the County Hospital at the weekend

Talks ongoing to restore Martinstown bus link

TALKS have been held between First bus and campaigners at Martinstown who hope to persuade the company to restore the 31 service.

Residents protested earlier this year after the majority of buses through the village were moved to the main road, missing the village for much of the day.

The campaign group held two public meetings and claim that the loss of the service has led to some staff at a local nursing home having to give up their job and others becoming, effectively, trapped in the village.

First said it made the changes to improve reliability and ensure connections with trains at Dorchester and Axminster.

The service is not subsidised and the changes only required the blessing of traffic commissioners, which was given when the company requested the changes.

Martinstown resident Keith Howat, who attended the meeting with First, say the company has promised to consider options in time for the autumn timetable.

One option could be to run an extra bus service for the village but this is likely to depend on First persuading the county council to offer some subsidy for the route – at a time when the council has been cutting subsidy to routes across Dorset.

Talks have also been held to start a volunteer driver CountryCar scheme for the village with the possibility of that being able to start before the start of the school holidays.

Around 30 people from the village have offered to be drivers.

Council writing off debt

HUNDREDS of thousands of pounds of debt is being written off by Dorset County Council – despite the authority struggling to make savings.

It includes academy schools and residents who have £68,000 in library fines outstanding. The average fine not paid is around £9.

More than £450,000 of debt has been rolled up, and not paid by County Council departments including Children's Services, Environment and Corporate Resources.

At the end of the last financial year, at the end of March 2014, more than £1m had been outstanding for over a year.

School crossing patrols needed for holiday cover

DORSET County Council is appealing for extra lollipop men and ladies to provide cover when regular school crossing patrols are unable to work.

Rob Camp, the council's senior road safety technician, said: "We have been fortunate for many years to be able to call upon a loyal group of relief staff, who have covered countless staff absences over many years, often at short notice when it is most important.

"Unfortunately, we have come to a point when new staff are required to come on board and help us maintain what is widely acknowledged as an excellent school crossing patrol service.

"The role of relief school crossing patrol is likely to appeal to someone semi-retired, or who prefers to work on an adhoc basis with the associated flexibility. Relief staff are paid an hourly rate with an additional travel allowance.

"We are looking for relief staff that can either cover just one school or several schools over a larger area. The more casual staff we have on our books, the more likely we are able to cover our school crossing patrol sites.

Peter Finney, the county council's Cabinet member for environment and economy, said: "Our patrol relief service is fantastic, covering 99.9 per cent of staff absences. We want to keep that way by recruiting more casual staff.

"Although the ultimate responsibility for the safety of children on their journey to and from school is a parental one, we choose to provide this non-statutory service in certain locations that meet strict national criteria. If we fail to recruit relief officers this provision could be under threat."

For more information about becoming a school crossing patrol officer or to apply visit www.dorsetforyou.com/road-safety/schoolcrossingpatrols.

Have your say on access to health improvement services

PEOPLE in Dorset can have their say on how they would like to access health improvement services.

Public Health Dorset is planning to create a one-stop-shop for people who would like to stop smoking, shed a few pounds, be more active or cut down on drinking alcohol.

The partnership is seeking views from Dorset residents to help develop the service.

This project aims to give one clear and simple access point for people looking to make changes to their own or their family's lifestyle to improve health and well-being.

Currently, there are several contact numbers and websites for each of these services.

The new service will provide people with one contact number, which will be staffed by people skilled at customer relations, engagement and motivation to encourage them to make small changes to their lifestyle.

This will receive the right level of support in a way that is most likely to work for each person, based on studies of what works in changing behaviour.

Dr David Phillips, director of Public Health Dorset, said: "This is a golden opportunity to create something that is easy for people to access and gives the right level of support for anyone wishing to improve their lifestyle. We need people's views to help shape this service so that it is best suited to their needs."

Have your say by completing a short survey.

Responses are completely confidential and will only be used in the development of this service.

Summer fun for families with county council

FAMILIES in Dorset can access a wide range of information about events and activities over the summer holidays, including local childcare and parent support groups from the county council website.

Dorset County Council's Family Information Service offers support to parents and carers of children aged 0-19, or up to 25 for young people with a disability, through its online directory.

Councillor Rebecca Knox, Cabinet member for children's safeguarding and families at Dorset County Council, said: "Dorset has a variety of fun activities for children and young people to enjoy.

"By using our online directory, you can see what's on in your local area or search for a particular activity."

Roz is off to House of Lords to pick up award

by Trevor Bevins

DORSET County Hospital (DCH) housekeeping assistant Roz Mesney will be at the House of Lords this week to receive a national award.

Roz has been chosen for a "Jubilee Award for Service" in recognition of her dedication to her role cleaning the hospital's Emergency Department.

The awards, being presented this Thursday, July 24th to 14 people, are run by the Jubilee Centre for Character and Values, and reward people who go above and beyond their remit, dedicate their working life to helping others, or who have made a significant contribution to the lives of others through their work.

Roz, who has worked in the Emergency Department for 16 years and 24 years in total at DCH, was nominated by the hospital's executive team.

Her nomination read: "Roz is the epitome of professionalism. She goes about her work in a seamless fashion and takes immense pride in doing a good job. She never needs to be asked and has the foresight to pre-empt what needs to be done."

"Roz receives many compliments about her work and her kind, calm and gentle manner makes her popular with both staff and patients. She always has a smile on her face, is discreet and is always willing to go beyond the remit of her role to help others."

"A great example of Roz's dedication to her role was when she purchased a pair of specialist walking boots at her own expense to ensure that she could make it into work during the snowstorms of 2012 so as not to let the department down."

"The organisation is lucky to have such a jewel in their crown."

Roz is now in her seventies but has chosen to carry on working because she loves her job.

She said: "I was very shocked when I heard that I had been chosen for the award. Once I got over the surprise I was really pleased. I just come in every day and get on with my job, I don't expect an award for doing it, but it's very nice to be recognised in this way.

"It's a pleasure working in the Emergency Department. All the staff here are lovely, very professional, but so friendly. They are a wonderful team and everyone works together so well."

Wind farm consultations continue

THE company behind plans for wind turbines on the edge of Dorchester is holding a community meeting this week at Charminster.

Broadview Energy Limited, the developer behind the proposed Slyer's Lane wind farm project want to put up six wind turbines off Slyer's Lane, each one about 350 feet tall.

Opinion in the area has been divided with a local group and the Dorset Campaign to Protect Rural England (CPRE) pledged to fight the plans and, more recently, a pro-wind power group set up to support it.

Both sides are running email campaigns to get their supporters to put their views in to planners once the plans have been formally submitted.

The Charminster Village Hall meeting on Friday, July 25th will be held from 6pm to 7pm with another community meeting in the hall from 7pm-9pm on August 19th. The company is expected to submit a formal planning application before the autumn.

Hospital's revamped surgery unit reopens

■ DOCTORS Mark Skues and Oliver Tweedie with staff from the county hospital day surgery unit – re-opened after being refurbished

THE opening of a refurbished day surgery unit at Dorset County Hospital has transformed services to patient according to doctors who work there.

The refurbished unit was officially re-opened on Friday of last week by Dr Mark Skues from the British Association of Day Surgery.

Divisional Director of Surgery, Dr Oliver Tweedie, said at the ceremony: "One of our goals is to put the patient first, and we believe that we do this by increasing access to day case surgery. We believe we can provide better patient care and a better experience through our day unit. I believe we have achieved a purpose designed unit by redeveloping on our existing footprint with a modest investment."

He said the day case rate for best practice procedures have gone up from 45 to 65 per cent in three years in the last year saving four bed days (£300,000 a year) by increasing day case admission form main theatres. "Roughly 25 per cent of admissions to the day case wards are from main theatre, an increase of about 50 per cent.

"This new development will provide single sex wards, better patient flows and utilisation of staff which will allow a 25 per cent increase in ward capacity."

"Without increased staff costs we are able to provide day surgery facilities to more patients than ever before," he said.

And he praised day surgery unit staff who he said had all embraced new techniques, technologies and new ways of working, "with only the appropriate amount of grumbling."

Youngsters needed for Mythical Maze challenge

A "MYTHICAL Maze" summer reading challenge has been launched for youngsters at Dorchester Library.

The challenge is looking for children aged four to eleven to explore mystical lands, fantastical creatures and stories from the world of legend and mythology.

The challenge will also involve events and activities at their local library as they go along.

The annual summer reading challenge, run by Dorset County Council's library service and eight community libraries across the county, offers children a chance to read their way through the school holidays.

All they have to do is read six books of their choice, collecting stickers for their posters as they go along. If they successfully complete the challenge, they will be awarded a medal and a certificate.

Councillor Colin Jamieson, Cabinet member for community services, said: "The summer reading challenge is great fun and it is free! You just need a library card to take part - if you don't have one already, you can get one at any of the libraries in Dorset.

"Reading for pleasure is one of the most important things we can teach our children, and it contributes greatly to their confidence and motivation.

■ YOUNGSTERS at the launch of the Summer Reading challenge at Dorchester Library and Learning Centre

"Last year more than 7,700 children in Dorset took part, and we hope to break this record with even more kids joining in the Mythical Maze.

"We are also grateful to the many young people who give their time to support children taking part in the challenge by listening to them talk about their books, encouraging their reading and giving out prizes."

If you are aged 16-25 and have a few spare hours each week during the summer holiday, please apply to become a volunteer online at: www.dorsetforu.com/src-volunteer or pick up an application form at your local library.

Slurry lagoon to be discussed at council

PLANS for a slurry lagoon the size of a football pitch, on the outskirts of Crossways, will be discussed at a parish council meeting next week.

The council has persuaded the district council to extend the deadline for comments on the scheme so that they, and residents, can have their say at a meeting on July 31st at 7pm in the village hall.

Parish chairman Andrew Brewer says that the application, for Summer Farm off Warmwell Road, has led residents to fear increased smells and problems with flies and rats if the proposal is allowed to go ahead.

But the applicants say the proposals will actually improve the situation.

"My family has lived in Summer Cottage, on and off since it was built in 1929 and I can trace back seven generations of Brewers who were farm labourers. The smell we already endure from the farm is really unpleasant and couple it with the flies and rats it makes for a pretty unpleasant environment. Some of the nearest properties have only just been built," said Mr Brewer.

The application for the larger lagoon claims that the existing lagoon is inadequate to deal with the amount of slurry produced on the holding and is causing problems of run off from the yard.

"The proposal will have little visual impact on the visual amenities of the area and will be totally unseen from public view due to its location behind the existing farm building and high silage clamps," say the applicants in a letter to the district council planning team.

Mr Brewer is urging local residents to look at the application on the DorsetForYou website and make any comments they wish to about the scheme by the end of July. The reference for the application is - WD/D/14/001438

Fire advice for firms that sleep on the job

DORSET Fire and Rescue Service has held a free fire safety information event for businesses where staff sleep on the premises.

It took place last Wednesday (16th) at the Fire Service's headquarters in Peverell Avenue West.

Head of Fire Safety for Dorset Fire and Rescue Service, Group Manager Andy Fox said: "A number of Dorchester businesses have been inspected by us which has resulted in formal legal action being taken under the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005.

"In some cases this has involved prohibition of some or all of the building due to the poor fire safety precautions provided for persons sleeping on the premises."

Bike riders to raise cash to fight leukaemia

LEUKAEMIA and Lymphoma Research are holding their annual Bikeathon on Sunday, September 7th, starting from Crossways Village Hall.

There are three bike ride routes: a fairly level nine miles through Woodsford and Moreton; a 20-mile ride via Briantspuddle, Dewlish and Puddletown; and, for the more adventurous, a 30-mile route, which is the 20-mile route extended to take in Cheselbourne and Piddletrenthide. The event starts at 10.30am with free refreshments at Crossways and a medal on completion of the ride.

The entry fee is £5 for adults and £2.50 for under 15s. All riders will receive a free t-shirt.

Last year 200 riders raised £9,000 to help in the fight against blood cancers.

Historic old rectory may open its doors to public

THE home of Reverend John White, who played a significant part in Dorchester's history and went on to lead a group of pilgrims to America, could be opened to the public.

Plans are at an early stage to bring the old rectory in Colliton Street back to life as part of a multimillion pound project to revamp the County Museum.

The museum is currently in the process of preparing an application to the Heritage Lottery Fund for a major redevelopment programme. If successful it will lead to the creation of the Collections Discovery Centre, which will increase permanent gallery space and improve facilities for researchers and others who want to use the building to study.

Now the museum also aims to bring Reverend White's rectory building back into public use.

"We believe that this project will not only benefit the museum, but will also have important advantages for Dorchester and Dorset more generally by improving community facilities, boosting tourism and supporting the local economy," said the museum's director, Jon Murden.

"We are planning a series of very informal conversations with a wide range of local people, and views on the kinds of priorities we should be addressing will be invaluable."

The museum is working with an external advisor, Anne Millman, to develop the plans.

John White organised the relief campaign following Dorchester's 'Great Fire' in 1613, which he said had been God's punishment to the town for moving away from the church. He also put together a small fleet of ships that sailed across the Atlantic to Massachusetts from 1624 onwards.

He returned to London where he became Rector of St Mary's, Lambeth. His Dorchester house was plundered and his library stolen at the start of the English Civil War in 1642.

Dorchester festival to celebrate different cultures

THE 'one world festival' to celebrate diversity and multiculturalism is take place in Dorchester this August.

Previous events have suffered from bad weather, but organisers are hoping that a change of month and venue will improve their chances of a successful day.

The event is being planned for Saturday, August 9th, and will be held in the Borough Gardens. Previous events have been held at the King's Road Playing Fields.

Organisers are now looking for people to take part in the day, with volunteers needed to help runs stalls and games and to take part in Kabaddi, a Bangladeshi wrestling game. Volunteers are also being sought to showcase the country they originally came from. This could include their native food, music, song or dance.

Offers of help should be made to Anna on 01202 392954 or by email to dorsetoneworld@gmail.com.

World War I exhibition opens at Keep

FORMER BBC chief correspondent Kate Adie has opened the Keep Military Museum's new World War I Trench exhibition.

The opening was taking place today, Wednesday 23rd, at 11am at the Bridport Road museum.

Helped by a £50,000 Heritage Lottery grant, the interactive exhibition will grow as the World War I centenary years pass over the next four years.

At today's opening was the niece of Birdie Loder, the sweetheart of Lance Corporal Horace Collier of Cerne Abbas. The Keep has a photograph of Birdie and a letter written to her by Horace. Her niece will tell how she kept his letter until her death in her mid-80s. The letter finishes "yours until death". Horace was killed in action on October 13th, 1914, in fighting north of Bethune, France.

Tolpuddle procession is "largest ever"

ORGANISERS of this weekend's Tolpuddle Martyrs' Festival claim the Sunday procession was one of the largest the festival had ever seen.

Speakers paid tribute to union leader Bob Crow and MP Tony Benn, who were both frequent visitors to the event and died earlier this year.

Festival organiser Nigel Costley, from the South West TUC, said: "We are 180 years on from the Tolpuddle Martyrs and trade unionists are still having to defend themselves from the Government."

"Back in 1834 the government used the law to send six farmworkers to Australia to stop them campaigning against low pay."

"Today the government is mooted changing the law on ballots to stop workers from taking strike action against low pay."

This year's event included a pilgrimage walk from Plymouth to Tolpuddle which included a stop at Dorchester's Prince of Wales School on Friday.

Artists set up in Hardy study for portrait workshop

BUDDING artists interested in portrait drawing have used Thomas Hardy's study at Max Gate in Dorchester for a demonstration on some of the basics of drawing the face from life.

Weymouth-based artist Susan R Hughes ran the workshop to coincide with the current exhibition at Max Gate, which runs until November and seeks to explore Hardy's relationship with his first wife Emma Gifford.

The exhibition includes 14 paintings set in and around their home on the edge of the town.

There will be another portrait workshop on Saturday, October 18th.

The exhibition at Max Gate is open from 11am till 5pm, Wednesdays to Sundays.

Hardy, who previously worked as an architect, designed Max Gate in 1885. He wrote some of his most famous novels here, including 'Tess of the d'Urbervilles' and 'Jude the Obscure', as well as much of his poetry.

For further information about the exhibition and workshop, contact the artist on 07712 532289 or via email at susanrhughes@gmail.com

Big names in town for Hardy Conference and Festival

THOMAS Hardy enthusiasts, some of them travelling from abroad, will be in Dorchester from this weekend for this year's international Hardy Conference and Festival.

Among the speakers will be the former Labour Home Secretary Alan Johnson, who was invited to take part after the conference and festival secretary Mike Nixon heard of his love of Hardy and fellow poet Philip Larkin.

Mr Johnson will be speaking on the final day of the conference, Saturday, August 2nd.

As well as a series of talks by eminent scholars, there will be tours and walks, a boat trip and a 'church crawl'.

The conference and festival opens with a reception and buffet at the Thomas Hardy School on the evening of Saturday, July 26th, with Costa Prize Best Book nominee Christopher Nicholson talking about his book 'Winter', which charts the relationship between Thomas and Florence Hardy and Gertrude Bugler during the winter of 1924.

On Sunday, July 27th, there will be a morning service at Stinsford Church with a walk to the church, led by Sue Clarke, meeting at the Town Pump at 10am.

During the afternoon, town crier and Blue Badge guide Alistair Chisholm will lead a walk around Dorchester.

Further details of the event can be found on the society's website at www.hardysociety.org.

Walkers take a stroll through local World War I history

A group of Dorchester walkers have enjoyed a World War I evening walk with local historian Brian Bates.

The Dorchester Strollers started their walk at the Military Museum, and went via Colilton Park, through North Square and Ford-ington to the German memorial in Fordington Cemetery. The walk ended at the war memorial in South Walks.

Mr Bates stopped on route to tell the group about how the war had affected particular areas of the town, how many had died in a particular street or about the use of buildings, some of which had subsequently been demolished.

For information about the Strollers, a weekly free walking group, phone 01305 263759 or pick up a programme from the Tourist Information Centre.

Course to boost older drivers' confidence

A COURSE to boost confidence for older drivers is being held in Dorchester in early August.

The event, to take place on Thursday, August 7th, will be open to those over 70. It will cost £5 for a two-hour long theory session.

The course will be presented by a road safety professional and will include the option of going out for an observed drive with an advanced instructor.

Subjects covered include better observation, avoiding distractions, allowing greater safety margins, dual carriageway and motorway driving and correct procedures at roundabouts.

The optional 90-minute, one-to-one practical driving session is on local roads and will include town and country driving. This aims to improve defensive driving techniques, hazard awareness and better road positioning.

Cabinet member for environment and economy, Cllr Peter Finney, said: "In a rural county like Dorset, driving is the most common way for people to get around, giving them access to work, loved ones, shops and health services.

"We could all do with a refresher from time to time, however long we've been driving. This course gives people a chance to brush up on their driving skills and help them stay safe on the road."

Further information about the course can be found at www.dorsetforyou.com/roadsafety/gold. To book a place, email roadsafety@dorsetcc.gov.uk or call the road safety team on 01305 224558.

Saturday 26th July 2014

THIS stunning, romantic venue is available for 'exclusive' hire. Couples can exchange vows outdoors in the Imperial Gazebo surrounded by lakes full of water lilies. The 'Monet' style Japanese bridge, weeping willows and water lilies recreates the scene from Claude Monet's painting 'Waterlily Pond 1899'. From here Brides make the most stunning entrance magically appearing from the bridge, then whilst walking, reflecting in the water like a mirror image, then through a six meter long willow arch to arrive into the Gazebo for the Ceremony.

Bennetts Water Gardens also specialise in lakeside marquee receptions catering for 60 to 300 guests with high tea, hog roasts and barbeques being very popular choices for a summer wedding. Celebrations can continue into the evening with a disco or band while the floodlit gardens create a magical atmosphere. Alternatively a smaller more intimate reception with High Tea for up to 45 guests can be held in Café Monet with superb views over the lake to the Wedding Gazebo.

Couples may choose to hold just the Ceremony or just the reception here, but it is the perfect venue to spend your entire day in one location.

On Saturday, July 26th from 11pm to 4pm Bennetts Water Gardens will be holding a Wedding Open Day so if you are planning your wedding day and looking for the perfect venue don't miss this opportunity to see these secluded, private gardens and facilities dressed for the wedding of your dreams. There will be very special offers available for Ceremonies booked on the day. Entrance is free.

■ PRESENTING the cheque to Weymouth and Portland Mayor Kate Wheller

Car enthusiasts raise £900 for hospice

MOTOR enthusiasts have presented a cheque for £900 to Weldmar Hospicecare Trust.

The money was raised by the 2014 Dorset Tour event organised by Weymouth Vehicle Preservation Society.

Chairman Mike Rodd said: "Weldmar was voted as the charity of the year for us.

"We think it is a brilliant charity and of particular interest to us because so many of our members have recently suffered from cancer."

The cheque was accepted on behalf of Weldmar by Weymouth and Portland Mayor Councillor Kate Wheller who said: "This was a terrific fundraising effort on behalf of Weldmar which is such a favourite cause for everyone."

Bicycle thefts on the rise in rural Dorset

ALMOST one bicycle a day is being stolen in rural Dorset – with more than 1,500 disappearing in a year across the whole county.

Figures from the police show 279 bicycles were reported stolen from the rural part of the county in 2013.

The Police say 90 per cent of thefts occur due to the use of inadequate locks and more than half of those which are taken are stolen from the owner's home, often left unsecured outside.

Anything other than a D-Lock can be cut through in seconds by a determined thief armed with a pair of bolt cutters.

Police are also advising cycle owners to permanently mark their machines with something which can later be identified.

Fundraiser for talking newspaper

■ SOUTH West Dorset Talking Newspaper has held its annual seafront stall on Weymouth Esplanade. People were able to browse books, bric-a-brac, toys, glassware and DVDs.

Organiser Ann Beeston said: "We plan to put the money we raise towards memory stick boxes for the visually impaired.

"We had a very good day and would like to thank everyone who supported us."

Help beat breast cancer with a charity bake sale

BREAKTHROUGH Breast Cancer is calling on bakers across the Dorset to bake cakes and help save lives for this year's "Breakthrough Bake Off".

Now in its second year, the Bake Off is back and bigger than ever, challenging those with flour power to help fund Breakthrough's life-saving research.

Taking part couldn't be easier; whether you're a master-baker or a practicing pâtissier, all you need to do is gather friends, family and colleagues to share some home-baked goodies and raise some cash. Whether it's a bake sale in the boardroom, competition in the kitchen or scrumptious snacks at school, the most important thing is that everyone takes part and raises some money.

This year's Bake Off day is October 17th, but you can hold a Breakthrough Bake Off anytime, anywhere, during October's Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

Georgia Bridgwood, Head Baker for the Breakthrough Bake Off, said: "We hope everybody is ready and raring to go for this year's Breakthrough Bake Off.

The delicious campaign first launched last year and was a huge success so we're hoping even more people will take part this year.

"It's heart-breaking that 1,000 UK women die from breast cancer each month - this is why Breakthrough Breast Cancer's work is so vital. If we don't act now, today, more and more families will face a future without the women they love, so please - for the women you love, sign up today and help us beat breast cancer for good."

Dorset sees rise in children in care

DORSET County Council will spend £30million this year looking after local children in care.

The council has a forecast overspend on the child care budget of £1.9million which was set as £27.1million for the year.

A total of 342 children are now in the care of the county council, with 279 in Bournemouth and 155 in Poole.

The county-wide cost of looking after children in care by Dorset councils amounts to almost £68million a year.

Across the county there has been a rise of almost 40 per cent in the number of children being taken into care over the last five years.

The total of 776 children are now being cared for by foster parents, in homes and other placements away from their parents classed as being "at risk of significant harm" if they were to stay at home. The figure for March 2009 was 560 across the county.

Much of the increase is due to a marked increase in calls from people reporting concerns after a number of national high profile cases where children have died at the hands of their parents.

Chamber teams up with Dormen

THE Dorset Chamber of Commerce and Industry (DCCI) has welcomed the Dorset Business Mentoring Service (Dormen) as a new member.

It was among 33 new members to join the chamber in May and June.

The chamber, the voice of business in Dorset, will raise awareness of Dormen's low cost mentoring services and encourage members to take full advantage of the help on offer as it continues to build up its support for county businesses.

Dormen, based in Poole, is an organisation with 90 experienced business people who volunteer their time to mentor business owners.

DCCI chief executive Ian Girling said: "It is vital that we provide business owners with the support they need to take advantage of the strengthening economy.

"Our new partnership will give them, and other businesses, a tremendous bank of knowledge and experience to draw upon."

DCCI represents businesses employing 37,000 people across Dorset.

Dormen was set up in 2005 and has helped more than 1,000 businesses so far.

It is supported by local authorities as well as a range of partner organisations.

Its mentors are individuals with a wide range of skills and talents who help businesses of any type, whether long-established or in the early years of trading.

Mentors act as impartial and confidential guides, offering experience, encouragement and support but also acting as sounding boards for new ideas.

All mentors are volunteers who give their time freely.

Teresa Allwood, who manages Dormen with Vivian Dunn, said: "This new partnership with DCCI offers great benefits for all.

"We are greatly looking forward to working together to help even more business survive, thrive and fulfil their potential in the years ahead."

Flood volunteers needed

COMMUNITIES across Dorset are being asked to get involved in managing flood risk in their area.

Many areas already have flood wardens who work with parish or town councils. Depending on the size of the community they work either independently or as part of a team checking drainage channels, supporting people affected and identifying actions to reduce the risk and impact of flooding.

Dorset County Council and the Environment Agency need to recruit more flood wardens or flood teams to help more communities protect themselves.

Flood wardens need to be good communicators, have an interest in their local area and be contactable during the day.

Training will be given on all areas of the work and there is an annual seminar, to share experiences and to learn more about flooding.

Email floodwessex@environment-agency.gov.uk by August 29th to show you are interested becoming a flood volunteer.

Magna supports homeless charity

NIGHTSTOP Dorset, part of the Action for Children charity, has received a £3,000 donation from local housing provider Magna Housing Association.

The money will help with accommodation and support for homeless young people.

Nightstop Dorset provides emergency accommodation for young people aged 16 to 25 at immediate risk of homelessness.

The Nightstop scheme recruits and trains volunteers across Dorset so they can open their homes on a short-term basis to provide accommodation, food and emotional support.

Magna's £3,000 donation came from its community initiative fund.

It allocates £120,000 a year to things which will improve the areas where residents live and £30,000 to charities and organisations which provide services of benefit to residents.

Kevin Mounce, project coordinator at Dorset Nightstop, said: "It's imperative that this life-saving service remains in place, as the young people we support literally have nowhere else to go and would be on the streets if Nightstop ceased to exist.

"Some young people arrive on our doorstep with carrier bags full of clothes and toiletries, others arrive with nothing. Thanks to Magna's support, we can not only continue this service, but the donation allows us to treat the young people we support as individuals and react to their own circumstances."

Ken Bodycombe, community investment officer at Magna, said: "Nightstop Dorset provides more than just a bed - they provide security and a helping hand at a time that can be terrifying and uncertain for young, vulnerable people.

"One of the people who had been homeless and helped by the charity, along with the volunteer who provided him with temporary accommodation, came to see the CIF group when they applied for funding. They shared their experiences of Nightstop Dorset and this had a huge impact on the group. The group were so impressed with what the charity had achieved.

"We are proud to have been able to support the charity by donating £3,000 from our community initiative fund."

Disability Wessex offers benefits advice to parents

by Harry Walton

PARENTS of young people with moderate to complex learning difficulties going into post-16 provision are being advised about what disability benefits are available to them.

Disability Wessex, the advice service of Dorset-based charity Diverse Abilities Plus, recently visited Westfield Arts College in Weymouth.

Westfield, which caters for pupils aged four to 19 from all over Dorset, invited Disability Wessex to attend the day and make parents aware that if their child receives Disability Living Allowance (DLA) and is studying full-time on a course below advance education they are also eligible to receive Employment and Support Allowance (ESA).

Disability Wessex advice manager Nikki Haswell said: "Very few parents or guardians are aware, or realise, that their children are able to receive ESA so they are unfortunately losing out on receiving additional money that they are rightfully entitled to."

ESA can provide young people just under £100 a week if they are between 16 and 25 years of age.

Nikki advised parents of this and how to apply. Nikki spoke to one parent with a son already aged 17 and revealed he was entitled to the benefit.

But applications can only be backdated three months, due to Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) rules, so the young man has lost out on nine months or more of benefits, nearly £4,000.

Nikki said: "I think it is very immoral that the DWP does not clearly notify parents or guardians of young people on DLA aged 16-19 years."

"If this young man's parents had been notified that their child was eligible for ESA it would have been very beneficial to him. The name of the benefit confuses and misleads people and many assume if a young person is in education then they won't be entitled to this benefit.

"It is yet another example of the DWP and benefits system letting disabled people down in addition to the disgrace of the ATOS medical assessment backlog.

"Other parents who believe their child may be eligible for ESA should check carefully to ascertain whether the young person will benefit more from ESA or whether they should just continue to claim Child Tax Credit (CTC) and claim Child Benefit for them."

In addition, parents claiming ESA for a qualifying young disabled person can enable the school or college to apply for an Educational Bursary for them, worth £1,200 pound per year, to purchase equipment or to pay for special opportunities, for that young person.

Disability Wessex has experienced advisors on hand for parents if they require advice on disability benefits or if they require someone to check out and assist with application forms or questionnaires.

Please get in touch by calling 0300 330 5514, 9am-1.30pm weekdays.

ANONYMOUS FESTIVAL RETURNS FOR SIXTH YEAR

Organisers on the hunt for new and exciting local bands and musicians

AS THE FREE Anonymous music & arts festival approaches Dorchester's Maumbury Rings for its sixth year running, the event's organisers are on the hunt for new and exciting local musicians and bands to perform.

The event will be taking place on Saturday, August 23rd from noon until 7pm with gates open at 11am.

The local youth forum, Dorchester Youth Extra (DYE) who run Anonymous recently organised the very popular 'Open Air Cinema' event in Borough Gardens.

Group member Krissy Tripp said "The cinema event was a great success this year with loads of families and members of the public turning up. We hope that the sun will keep shining for Anonymous this year as it's guaranteed to be a good one!"

The event is open to all members of the public and is a great showcase of local talent, and of what

West Dorset has to offer!

Acts are in the process of being booked but the organisers are asking anyone who is interested in performing at the event to contact Emma Scott - details at end.

Anonymous will consist of two stages this year; one main stage concentrating on artists performing original music and an 'Open Mic cafe' for original and cover music - something to suit everyone.

DYE Member Demi Watts said "Anonymous is a great chance for local bands to show off their talents. It has been, and will continue to be, an excellent day for the whole family to enjoy."

As ever the day is about more than great music. There will be a whole host of activities and performances being put together to give visitors to Dorchester a great day out. Amongst other activities there will be the opportunity to try your hand on the fun climbing wall and test your balance at slack lining with the amazing 'Maverick Slacklines' team. There will be zorbing and a bouncy castle, as well as a chance to get crafty with graffiti art and craft workshop.

Not only is the event free entry but the activities are free of charge too!

Emma Scott who helps DYE to organise the event said "We are thrilled to be joined by 2 members of the very talented and hilarious 'Slightly Fat Features' this year who will be performing their circus act around the event. And for the fourth year running we are lucky enough to have the backing of the Dorset based 'Keep Love Sweet' campaign who are sponsoring the Open Mic Cafe and who will be on hand to give out information and advice to young people about contraception and sexual health.

And as part of Anonymous 2014, we have been able to go live with lots of new exciting social media pages. Kindly created and donated by local creative agency "Revolting" these include our brand new Facebook page, our new twitter account and a fantastic looking website which we think really helps to demonstrate what a great event this is".

Ross Cleaver - creative director of Revolting said "We were so impressed by the festival in 2013 where I went with my family that I felt that more people should know about it. I contacted Emma and was blown away by her enthusiasm and drive and felt the best way to help out was to give some design advice and create a website for them. I am especially looking forward to 2014 because it coincides with my birthday!"

The organisers of Anonymous have had great support from many organisations and would like to thank Revolting Creative Agency, Dorchester Town Council, Magna Housing Association, Keep Love Sweet, West Dorset District Council and Air 107.2 Community Radio.

If you are interested in sponsoring Anonymous 2014 or would like to perform or volunteer at the festival please contact Emma Scott - see below.

DAZZLING SWORDPLAY ON THE MILLENNIUM GREEN

EXPECT much dazzling swordplay when touring company Illyria bring the play Macbeth to the Millennium Green next Thursday, July 31st, at 7pm.

Macbeth is a man with a bright future ahead of him. That is until he meets three witches, the third of whom prophesies that he will become the king himself. And so the seed of ambition is sown.

You'll witness the unravelling of a great man and his chain of treachery, murder and destruction.

In their 23rd year Illyria are much loved in Bridport and have gained a reputation for performing wonderful outdoor theatre rain or shine. They have recently impressed with Babe, The Mikado, The Pirates of Penzance and Twelfth Night.

This production will be performed on a stage closely replicating those of 17th-century touring troupes.

Bring a picnic and a blanket and expect a gripping story and brilliant afternoon's entertainment for all.

Tickets cost £15/£14/£12 from Bridport Arts Centre's box office (01308) 424204 www.bridport-arts.com

Shanty Theatre return to Lyme Regis with The Story Giant

IT IS night-time on Dartmoor and a cold wind whistles through the bracken and gorse, making them sing. Deep in his castle, the Story Giant is dying. Over the centuries he has gathered all the tales in existence. All that is, except one.

Tonight his very life relies on finding it.

Last seen at the Marine Theatre in 2012 with their hit production of 'The Rime of the Ancient Mariner', Shanty Theatre Company are notably recognised for effortlessly combining live music, clever ditties, pun-tastic jokes, vibrant characters, and storytelling at its very best for all the family to enjoy.

Join them this summer as they dash through story explosion after turbulent tale in The Story Giant (based on the book by Brian Patten). Expect skulls with overdeveloped conversational skills, gremlins playing Johnny Cash, dragons with strange culinary preferences, fountains of blood, mountains of music, a haunted tannoy speaker, The Duke of Edgbaston, laughs, shocks, surprises, and a white D reg BMW E30 convertible, in this adventure to find the last story on earth.

Adapted from the book by legendary Liverpool poet Brian Patten, this is a family production to be enjoyed by anyone of seven years and older!

The Story Giant will be performed at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis from Friday, July 25th to Sunday, August 10th and Thursday, August 21st to Thursday, August 28th. Tuesdays to Fridays: 7.30pm, Saturdays and Sundays: 6.00pm

Tickets are £9, £7 concessions, and family (2 adults, 2 conc) £28.00.

Margaret Green Animal Rescue's Companion Dog Show and Family Fun Day

NESTLED in the heart of Purbeck is Margaret Green Animal Rescue's animal sanctuary and visitor centre. It is from here that the charity have been rescuing and rehoming animals since 1965. The charity is delighted to announce that their annual companion dog show and family fun day is returning to on Sunday 3rd August.
Join in with all the fun between 11am and 4pm on the day and enter one of the seventeen dog show classes. From pedigree classes to novelty classes such as 'waggiest tail' and 'best MGAR rescue' there really is something for every dog! Dogs that have been rehomed from Margaret Green, also have the chance to qualify for Buckham Fair on the day.

You don't have to have a dog to enjoy the day! The charity has organised a full programme of stalls and attractions including a dog scurry, bouncy castle and kid's zone, band and Pimms tent. Visitors can also enjoy something from the BBQ or refreshments stand.
The dog show is the biggest fundraising event in the charities calendar and they are urging people to come along and support them. Every penny raised will go directly back into caring for over 1,200 animals each year who have been rescued from abuse or neglect, have been abandoned or whose owners can no longer look after them.
The winning tickets for the Summer Grand Draw will be drawn at the end of the day, so it will be your last chance to purchase your tickets and be in with a chance of going home that day with a cheque for £500!

Entrance to the event is £3 for adults and £1 for children (aged 12 and under). Join in with all the fun at Margaret Green Animal Rescue, Visitor Centre and Sanctuary, Church Knowle, Wareham, Dorset, BH20 5NQ.

There will be a vast array of stalls including books, bric-a-brac, cakes, delicatessen, gifts, plants, as well as the 'Lion and Which Ward?' stall which features vintage and designer clothing and accessories and the famous silent auction and a superb tombola.
The entertainment consists of Jigsaw James with his stilts, together with Ember the fire-eater.
The grand raffle has once again been, one again, sponsored by Watson Fuels.

1st prize £300 – Donated by Watson Fuels Ltd, 2nd Prize £200 – Donated by BookKeepers Ltd, 3rd prize £100 – Donated by Steve Hansford Flooring.

The Bull Hotel boasts excellent restaurant dining with a fantastic outdoor space to dine Al fresco. Sit in the wonderfully secluded courtyard garden and enjoy the best Bridport has to offer.

Head chef George Marsh forms the ever-changing menu. George is a local lad, who is very well connected with a number of local suppliers, including the local fisherman in West Bay. The menu has a strong emphasis on seafood, and with freshly caught fish from Lyme Bay being delivered to the kitchen every day, the quality and freshness really does shine through.

Three auctions in six days covering five counties

Symonds & Sampson have taken their Auction Roadshow to three different venues over a 6 day period with terrific success.

Auctioneer Mark Lewis said, "It has been a very busy time with properties auctioned in Hampshire, Wiltshire, Somerset, Dorset and Devon bringing in audiences totalling over 500 people throughout the course of the events. Everyone has been very good humoured and bid strongly on all lots. All of the hard work and effort has definitely paid off."

The first auction in the series was on 27 June in Sherborne where agricultural land at Kington Magna sold for £13,800/acre and 83 acres at Askerswell near Dorchester sold for £415,000. A cottage with a protected tenant at Cokers Frome, near the Showground at Dorchester sold for £165,000 whilst a cottage in West Bay sold for £268,000 and a single garage for £24,500. The most interest, however, was generated for Little Watercombe Farm at Warmwell, formerly known as Misery Farm, which had a farmhouse, annexe, holiday cottage and 30 acres of land including beautiful lakes. There was huge interest with a buyer flying in from Singapore for the auction but we agreed a pre-auction sale at around the guide price.

A lovely timber dwelling with living room, kitchen, bedroom and bathroom, together with 8 acres of land sold for £150,000 and a development site at Weymouth, overlooking the Olympic Harbour, sold for £455,000.

Brick Kiln Cottage at Semley in Wiltshire received terrific interest and was quite unique. A detached two bedroom cottage it also had a wood and a medieval moat. Mark comments, "This was one of the most extraordinary properties that I have sold for some time and the guide price of £400,000-£425,000 was exceeded with the hammer falling at £506,000."

On 2 July Symonds & Sampson went to the Bartley Lodge, Cadnam, near Southampton. There were some lovely properties for sale here including 0.7 acres at Stuckton, Fordingbridge selling for £17,000. Dilton Glen was a fascinating detached property in the most stunning location in the heart of the New Forest National Park. The dwelling was really just a detached park home set 3.4 acres and the hammer fell at £412,000.

The great pull here was Bleak Hill Farm at Harbridge, near Ringwood. A farmhouse, buildings and 17.69 acres was on the market for the first time in 100 years. The guide price of £600,000 soon became a distant memory as the hammer fell at £875,000. There were two blocks of agricultural land selling for just over £12,000/acre and then 4.93 acres with a building where buyers thought there was a possibility of getting planning permission. This sold for £144,000 while 7.88 acres of woodland sold for £50,000.

The next day, 3 July, we were in Axminster, Devon, where another large crowd gathered to see properties sold throughout the region. Two lots of woodland, 3.51 acres and 2 acres, sold for £40,000 and £17,000 respectively whilst 3.22 acres at Uploders, Bridport, sold for £30,500. A pretty 1.61 acre paddock on the outskirts of Axminster sold for £35,500; some people thought there was a future development opportunity here.

Lots on offer included property being sold on behalf of the trustees for Axminster Carpets; a house split into two flats and a great investment, sold for £169,000 and a detached house on the edge of the town, ripe for re-development, sold for £222,000.

All in all it was a very exciting and fulfilling 6 days and we look forward to our auction on 31 July in Sherborne where properties in 4 counties will be offered. Symonds & Sampson are now taking entries for their 26 September sale. Please get in touch with Mark Lewis if you would like him to advise you on the value of your property for auction on 01258 473766.

The New Fiat Panda Cross - A Car Like No Other

BEING able to offer something truly unique in the increasingly competitive SUV segment is no small achievement but in the FIAT Panda Cross that's exactly what you get - a car like no other! In 2006 SUVs accounted for around seven percent of the total car market in Europe whereas today they account for approximately 20 percent, and yet despite the proliferation of models in the past decade the new FIAT Panda Cross remains a truly unique offering by combining the genuine capabilities of a proper off-road vehicle with the efficiency and practicality of a versatile city car.

The technological upgrades of the FIAT Panda Cross make it the most capable vehicle in its class by some margin - more so even than the award-winning FIAT Panda 4X4* on which it is based - yet it is a car that could still be chosen purely for its low running costs, day-to-day practicality and general ease and pleasure of use. The aesthetic enhancements not only provide some visual clues to the all-road potential of the FIAT Panda Cross, they also perform the functional role of protecting its bodywork, lights and mechanical components, both in extreme off road conditions and the rough and tumble of city traffic. No other car can offer such extreme cross functionality, but then FIAT does have more than 30 years of experience in city car innovation: The FIAT Panda was the first to be offered with all-wheel drive in its segment, as well as the first to be powered by diesel, methane and LPG. More recently it pioneered City Brake Control in its segment, a safety feature that is ideally suited to city cars but until that time was reserved for larger luxury vehicles. It's this reputation for practical innovation that has consistently kept the Panda amongst the best sellers in its class - it currently occupies the second spot in Europe, just behind its stable-mate, the FIAT 500.

The new FIAT Panda Cross builds on the combination of versatility and style which has always been a hallmark of the range-topping Panda 4X4 versions, ranging from the FIAT Panda 4X4 Steyer-Puch special edition of the late 80s to the previous-generation FIAT Panda Cross, which was first launched in 2006. In keeping with the distinctive looks of its predecessor, the front end of the new FIAT Panda Cross is dominated by a chunky new bumper which features scratch- and bump-resistant corner sections and a large, functional skidplate - finished in silver "ultrashine" and enhanced with cooling perforations in the Panda's signature "squirrel" shape. The skidplate is further embellished with a pair of easily-accessed tow hooks, finished in brilliant red, as well as new LED day-time running lights located in protective recesses. The new head-light clusters are framed with matte black surrounds and incorporate pronounced new fog lights, while the bonnet trim is also redesigned for the new FIAT Panda Cross.

In profile, the FIAT Panda Cross features protective wheel arch extensions, thick side mouldings with "ultrashine" inserts, matching roof bars and 'Cross' badging in the rear door inserts. The 15-inch alloy wheels feature a five-spoke V design and a burnished metal finish, while the rear end also benefits from some functional revisions, including a new bumper with "ultrashine" under-body protection, distinctive new light clusters and a chrome tail pipe.

The New Bmw i8 – The Future of the Supercar

▲ The new BMW i8

BMW's most advanced sport cars ever offered for sale. The BMW i8 is a plug-in hybrid performance vehicle that uses a three cylinder turbocharged petrol engine, with a 1.5-litre capacity, in conjunction with an electric motor to provide searing acceleration but in a package that takes BMW's EfficientDynamics philosophy to a new high, posting just 49g/km and 135mpg figures in the process.

Design: Visible efficiency with aerodynamic optimisation on a detailed level. The design of the BMW i8 brings together hallmark BMW dynamics, lightweight design and efficiency. The 2+2-seater is immediately recognisable as a BMW i model and a new-generation sports car. A length of 4,689mm, width of 1,942mm and height of 1,298mm give the BMW i8 typical sports car proportions. Its dynamic character is also reflected in its long bonnet, clearly visible aerodynamic aids, stretched roofline, short overhangs and long, 2,800mm, wheelbase. The car's wide track (1,644 millimetres at the front axle, 1,715 millimetres at the rear) completes the powerful dynamic presence generated by the car's proportions.

The structure of overlapping and interlocking surfaces also contributes to the unmistakable appearance of the BMW i8. This layering principle allows aerodynamic forms to be wrapped up in a progressively styled package, while powerfully formed wheel arches draw attention to the wide track of the BMW i8. The compact construction allows the front and rear sections of the car to be particularly low-slung and thus accentuate the car's dynamically stretched flanks. The dihedral doors open forwards and upwards, adding intrigue to the sports car design of the BMW i8.

The black belt on the BMW i8 emerges in a "V" shape from the bonnet and extends back over the roof into the rear section of the car, where it frames the centre section of the rear bumper. At the front end, the black belt is framed by the body-coloured apron and side panels, while at the rear it is overlapped by the floating roof pillars, extending over the rear lights.

The front view of the BMW i8 exudes sporting ability. Large front spoiler air intakes generate a feeling of depth. The broad BMW kidney grille stretches over to the slim headlights, accentuating the width of the BMW i8 and its road-focused stance. The car's full-LED headlights adopt the hallmark U-shape of BMW i models.

The rear of the car is bordered by the sculpted rear wheel arches. The sloping rear window opens, allowing easy access to the storage compartment located underneath. The rear lights, reflectors and rear diffuser form a single visual unit that strengthens the car's powerful appearance. Like the headlights, the intricately designed rear light clusters also feature the characteristic BMW i U-shaped design. The rear indicators are integrated into the downward sweep of the roofline, above the rear light cluster. All of the lights on the BMW i8 are LEDs as standard.

The BMW i8 boasts a drag coefficient (Cd) of 0.26 and a fine aerodynamic balance. The low-slung bonnet, partially closed kidney grille, Aero Curtains in the front spoiler, sealed underbody, contoured side skirts, and the air ducts between the rear lights and roof frame allow the air to be channelled extremely effectively as it hits the car.

The large 20-inch comparatively slim wheels with their bespoke, aerodynamically optimised design also help to quell efficiency-reducing turbulence. Their effect is reinforced by diffuser inlet footplates positioned behind the front wheels and ahead of the rear wheels.

The paintwork on the BMW i8 can be specified in a choice of four colours, three of which have been created exclusively for BMW i. All the paint finishes provide a striking contrast to the black belt. Depending on the colour chosen, the accent surfaces on the side skirts, at the rear and on the BMW kidney grille surround come in BMW i Blue or Frozen Grey.

Inside the driver orientation, typical of BMW cockpit design, is complemented by progressive elements which highlight the sports car's dynamic flair and light weight. The occupants sit low down, in traditional sports car style, in lightweight seats. The standard leather trim extends beyond the seat surfaces to parts of the centre console, instrument panel and interior door panels. The use of leather treated with natural substances underlines the sustainable character of the BMW i8 alongside its exclusivity and sporting allure. Exposed carbon-fibre-reinforced plastic (CFRP) sections of the passenger cell, visible around the entry apertures when the doors are opened, provide a reminder of the low weight of the BMW i8.

Two World-Firsts, One of the Safest Cars in the World

▲ All-new XC90 Safety

VOLVO Cars' all-new XC90 – which will be revealed in August – will offer the most comprehensive and technologically sophisticated standard safety package available in the automotive industry. The new technologies will take the company a significant step closer to its vision that no one will be killed or seriously injured in a new Volvo car by 2020.

The standard safety package on the all-wheel drive, seven seat premium SUV will include two world first safety technologies: a run-off road protection package and auto brake at intersection capability. These innovations will form part of a suite of safety features that will make the all-new XC90 one of the safest cars ever made.

"Our starting point on safety is the same today as it was 87 years ago: real-life situations," says Dr Peter Mertens, Senior Vice President Research and Development of Volvo Car Group. "We study data. We crunch numbers. We innovate. The result is one of the safest cars ever made."

World first number 1: Run-off road protection

Run-off road is a common accident type with different causes, such as driver distraction, fatigue or poor weather conditions. For example, half of all traffic fatalities in the United States are road departure accidents, while in Sweden, single-vehicle accidents involve one third of all fatal and severe injury crashes with passenger cars.

Volvo is deeply troubled by these statistics.

Even though there are currently no regulatory or rating tests to examine a car's ability to handle run-off road accidents, the company has decided to develop the technology to protect occupants should these situations occur.

"Committing to safety is not about passing a test or getting a ranking," says Prof. Lotta Jakobsson, Senior Technical Specialist Safety at Volvo Cars Safety Centre. "It is about finding out how and why accidents and injuries occur and then developing the technology to prevent them. We lead, the industry follows."

Volvo Cars developed Safe Positioning to address these situations.

The Safe Positioning capability means that in a run-off road scenario, the all-new Volvo XC90 detects what is happening and the front safety belts are tightened to keep the occupants in position. The belts are firmly tightened as long as the car is in motion.

To help prevent spine injuries, energy-absorbing functionality between the seat and seat frame cushions the vertical forces that can arise when the car encounters a hard landing in the terrain. The solution is capable of reducing the vertical occupant forces by up to one third. This counteracts spine injuries, which are serious and relatively frequent consequences of these situations.

The XC90 also features technologies that help the driver avoid run-off road scenarios:

The Lane Keeping Aid applies extra steering torque if the car is about to leave the lane unintentionally, while Driver Alert Control, which is also standard, detects and warns tired or inattentive drivers. It even has Rest Stop Guidance, which directs the driver to the nearest rest area.

World first number 2: Auto brake at intersections

The XC90 is the first car in the world with technology that features automatic braking if the driver turns in front of an oncoming car. This is a common scenario at busy city crossings as well as on highways, where the speed limits are higher. The all-new Volvo XC90 detects a potential crash and brakes automatically in order to avoid a collision or mitigate the consequences of a crash.

"These two world firsts are further examples of how new technologies target substantial real-life traffic problems. This strategy moves us closer and closer to our ambition that by 2020 no one should be killed or seriously injured in a new Volvo," says Prof. Lotta Jakobsson.

Broad range of Safety features for the all-new XC90

There is a wide range of other safety innovations available on the all-new XC90. They include the following:

Pre-crash protection in rear impacts

Rearward facing radars detect if a rear impact is imminent and safety belts are tightened in advance in order to keep the occupant in a good position. Lights also start flashing to warn the driver behind, and the brakes are activated to help reduce the impact on the occupants.

Together with Volvo Cars' new seat design, which integrates the next generation of the groundbreaking Whiplash Protection System (WHIPS), this new holistic rear impact pre-crash function helps reduce whiplash injuries.

Bridport men crush Dorchester in top of the table clash

Bridport A who lead Division 2 consolidated their position with a thumping win 76-38 over lowly Lyme Regis B 76 - 38 with all three rinks winning topped by a grand 39-8 victory for Derek Hoskins, Phillip Wilson, David Eastman and John Block. Clive Langdon, Mike Smith, Bob Seadon and Chris Taylor won 29-15 as did Ken Sanger, Peter Scott, John Ireland and Dave Gundry 18-15.

They fared better in the SDFL beating Dorchester away, winning overall 38-26. Cornick, Mary Corfield, Mary Marsh won 21-7, but Taylor, Janet Bird and Mary Eastman were unlucky to lose 17-19 pulling back to 17-17 on the 20th end, only to drop two on the last end.

The Ladies Red Edna Paisley lost both rinks to Portlandv BO; Corfield, Eastman and Sue Fox 12- 24, and Carter, Pauline Newitt and Jill Harding 14- 18 for a 26-42 loss, and the ladies were also defeated by Wellworthy in the first round of the June Culpin Trophy.

Bridport lost their League 2 game against Greenhill 39-65. Mel. Griffiths , Brian Pratt, Dave Hocking and Roger Herbert unlucky playing three pulled back well 13 21, whilst Max Dare, Dave Aylott, Alan Skelton and Dave

Lyme Regis Bowls

AN encouraging 10-0 defeat of Wellworthy 'A', by Lyme's second team, has to be the highlight of the week's league action.

The championship side and the ladies both managed a paltry 2 points in their respective games whereas, Lyme's third team were crushed by Bridport 'A' 0-10! It is going to take some inspired bowling from all the league sides if, they are to avoid relegation. The championship side having a particularly tough run in to the end of the season, having to play 3 of the top 4 teams.

In the friendlies it was win 1 lose 1 with both games being quite closely contested. The annual match against Cardiff went in favour of the visitors. This match was followed by supper supplied by Jan Parsons, ladie's captain, and her trusty band of helpers.

Former pupil returns to present sports awards

A FORMER Sir John Colfox School student who is starting to make his way in a career in sport, returned to the school recently to present the awards at their Sports Presentation Evening.

The 21-year-old having just graduated with a 1st Class Honours Degree in Sports Science at the University of Wales Institute Cardiff, is putting his theory into practice having joined the GB Bobsleigh Olympic team on work experience where he has been helping put the squad through tests, and was just about to join Newport County Football Club helping in pre and post match warm-up and warm downs.

Headteacher Kay Taylor welcomed the parents, families and sponsors to what she said was another magnificent year of sporting achievement and the chance to relive those moments again.

She told a packed hall that this year had seen the greatest participation by students in sports day ever; a good measure of how important sport was now in schools, and that it augured well for the future; and that the night was not just a celebration about the elite, but those that had taken part and achieved.

Deputy Head David Herbert in introducing Rob Condliffe said he was as near a perfect role model you could get whilst at school, not only being committed to school sport as anyone who had ever passed through the doors, but also academically achieving 10 GCSE' Grade A*-C, including the highest GCSE PE grade in his year of 100 per cent.

Rob, admitting his nervousness at addressing the audience, said how much he had enjoyed his time at the school and at UWIC, but was really pleased to be in work.

The school's superb reputation for producing top sportsmen and women over the last 25 years was once again demonstrated in the student's achievements over a variety of sports.

This year's winners were: Year 7: Sportsman - Manny Cox; Sportswoman - Olivia Willmore; Year 8: Sportsman - Thaisen Chant; Sportswoman - Sydney March; Year 9: Sportsman - Sam Handyside; Sportswoman - Georgie Hughes; Year 10:

Sportsman - Eric Robertshaw; Sportswoman - Gaby McNamee; 6th Form: Sportsperson - Wendy Robertshaw; Young Leader: Ryan Gall; Sporting Achievement Outside School: Charlotte Johnson; Young Coach of the Year: Will Bowen-Ashwin; Team: Junior Girls Cross Country; Fair Play: Zoe Lake; Sports Person: Wendy Robertshaw

Barriball brothers take Uplyme apart

Uplyme and Lyme Regis 1st XI 215 all out lost to Whitchurch Wayfarers 334 for 7 by 119 runs

Devon League Div D 1st XI

AFTER a short burst of rain prior to the start of the match Uplyme skipper Steve Batey opted, on winning the toss to bowl first on a wicket he thought might give some assistance to his seam bowlers. Unfortunately once the game had started the sun quickly dried a flat wicket and with a quick outfield and the boundary ropes set in the visitors made hay.

The vast majority of their runs were scored by brothers, Billy Barriball 93 and Charlie Barriball 90 with extras contributing 54 to a final total of 334. Rhys Davies was the most successful of the Uplyme bowlers taking 6 for 58 in nine overs

After a long hot afternoon in the field the Uplyme reply did not get off to the best of starts with both Rob Thom and Nick Dinnesson falling to the bowling of Mark Kerswell with the score a mere 25. Wickets continued to tumble as scoreboard pressure began to tell. Uplyme reached 88 for the loss of 5 wickets. This was followed by a brief period of resistance from Steve Batey [32] before he was caught off the bowling of Josh Towl.

It was left to Alfie Bellworthy [35] and Jedd Whittington to put together a stand of 73 and gain some respectability in the reply. Whittington fell for a well made 58 with the score on 203 but there was little to follow and the innings closed on 215 and a disappointing defeat.

The team will look to bounce back on Monday when they entertain Feniton in the area final of the Corinthian Cup.

Countess Wear 2nd XI 125 all out lost to Uplyme and Lyme Regis 2nd XI 128 for 7 by 3 wickets

Devon League Div D East 2nd XI

ON A HOT sultry day Uplyme were asked to bowl first on a good-looking track. Undeterred they went about their business in a workman like fashion. Openers Wallace Blackmore and Wesley Holmes bowled excellently keeping a good length and line and forcing mistakes from the Wear batsmen. Holmes struck first when he forced the Mark Boley onto the back foot and bowled him through the gate. He then had number 3, Jack Heaver caught in the covers by Henry Perry.

Not to be left out Blackmore continued with his accurate spell that returned figures of 9 overs, 4 maidens, 3 for 28. With wickets from veteran spinner Steve Howe Wear looked dead and buried on 52 for 8. They managed to resurrect themselves somewhat thanks mainly to a fine knock of 52 from number 9 batsman P Singh, ably supported by I Singh and then S Bage he took the score up to 125 before he was last man out.

The Uplyme innings started disastrously with three of the top four going without scoring, although Dave Norman can count himself very unlucky to have been adjusted caught behind. Henry Perry however rode his luck to score 21 before being caught and bowled by I Singh. The final rescue act came from the Holmes family with the support of man of the match Wallace Blackmore. First brothers Wesley 22 and Daley 17 withstood some unnecessary verbal abuse to take the score into the eighties and this stand was followed by another between Rodney Holmes who contributed 22 not out with the support of Blackmore 13 not out to take Uplyme over the line for their fifth victory of the season.

Moxom and Caldwell run riot before Joe powers Dorchester home

IN A WEEKEND which saw some games cancelled and many interrupted by rain, Dorchester's openers Pete Moxom and Will Caldwell may have gone in the record books for the biggest opening partnership in the club's history when they blasted 244 for the first wicket against Broadstone.

Caldwell then made the breakthrough in the visitors reply with three wickets before Joe Power swept through the rest taking five wickets to earn the county town a last ball victory.

Charlton Down's Sam Roles was also an all round winner, taking 5-4n to dismiss Witchampton 2nd's for 78 before smashing an unbeaten 62.

WEYMOUTH 121-4 BEAT STALBRIDGE 184
ALL OUT (REVISED TARGET 120)

WEYMOUTH captain Kieron Womble put his criticism of himself following the defeat at Poole Town last week behind him, to provide the springboard for victory against Stalbridge that sees them stay in second spot.

Having bowled the visitors out for 184, rain reduced their target to 120 in only 25 over, but Womble opening the innings with Jim Ryall, struck a match winning 57 not out to steer them to victory by six wickets.

Weymouth's bowlers had earlier stuck to their task when Stalbridge batted with Dave Trotter (3-24), Harry Tucker (2-26) and Simon Browne (2-35) the main wicket takers, to bowl them out for 184 in two balls short of their allocation.

With two games to go, the Seasideers are hoping they can continue the goods form and win a place in the top four and a play-off for the title.

Premier League 2
Dorchester 1st
DORCHESTER 270-2 BEAT BROADSTONE 2ND
123 ALL OUT BY 147 RUNS

JOE Power snatched victory for Dorchester with the last ball of the innings in a pulsating game that saw the county town move clear at the top of the table.

Having set Broadstone 2nd's a challenging 271 for victory after an opening stand of 244 from Will Caldwell (86) and Pete Moxom (142), the visitors only looked to prevent Dorchester taking full points after Dan Belt (0-11 from nine overs), and James Dunham (0-15 from 6 overs), had restricted their openers with some superb controlled bowling to just 64 off 21 overs.

However it was Caldwell (3-19), following up his superb batting performance, who made the breakthrough in the field. He bagged both openers Keith Brewer (17) and captain Simon Leadbeater (37) and then bowled Iain Griffiths to leave Broadstone 93-3. However full points looked a long way off before Power struck by bowling Harry Leadbeater with the score 100-4. A run out, a wicket for Eamonn Scott and two more for Power saw Broadstone on the brink at 117-8, but Dorchester still needed two wickets with an over to spare.

Up stepped the spinner to first bowl N Kerai, and with the last ball he flattened R Newton's stumps to claim 5-17 from 5.5 overs and victory by 147 runs.

Heavy rain had delayed the start and the match was reduced to 42 overs per side, and losing the toss, Dorchester were asked to bat.

Despite the pitch being a bit slow and hard for the batsmen to time, Moxom and Caldwell put the Broadstone bowling to the sword with Moxom making it look easy with a fabulous 142 from just 112 balls, whilst Caldwell supported him well with a majestic 86.

Broadstone tried eight bowlers before R Poole made the breakthrough on 244, the innings finally closing on 270-2.

Skipper Dan Belt said: "it was tough and go, but we finally collected all 20 points. I would have been happy with 18 considering the position they were in at 64-0 after 21 overs, after Will Caldwell had softened them up taking the first three wickets, Joe Power came through with a devastating spell of bowling.

"I was thrilled with the way we started our innings. Pete Moxom and Will did brilliantly with the bat and it was a great effort. Pete said it was hard work, although he made it look pretty easy!"

With Martinstown losing to Bere Regis; only their second defeat of the season; the win sees Dorchester regain top spot, four points ahead of the local rivals, and sets the season up nicely with the county town having to visit both in their next two games.

Martinstown
Martinstown 109 all out lost to Bere Regis 95-4 (revised target of 95)

Martinstown lost top spot with a poor batting display against Bere Regis. The visitors put the hosts in and Dave Herbert and Henry Lewis (28) gave Martinstown a good start with an opening stand of 57, but the introduction of Dean Rogerson at first change was their undoing with skipper Ed Nichols the first of his victims with only one added to the score.

When he took his fourth wicket in a row; a return catch off Herbert for who top scored with 42; Martinstown had slumped to 89-4.

It was downhill from there as Rogerson claimed 6-24 from 10 overs with Martinstown dismissed for 109 all out.

Rain just after tea reduced the target to 95 off 38 overs. Nichols got his revenge, catching Rogerson behind off Matt Camp (1-14 off 8 overs) for a duck when Bere Regis replied, and with Liam Banfield (2-16 off 8 overs) grabbing a brace to leave them 27-3, the hosts seemed to be back in the game again, but David Griffiths (22 not out) and Pete Macklin (45) added 60 for the fourth wicket and in reach of victory which they did with over nine overs to spare.

Captain Nichols said: "Dave Herbert and Henry Lewis made an encouraging start, but whilst credit to Dean Rogerson who bowled a good line and length, he didn't have to be that good as all his six wickets were gifts, and this is something we need to put right next week.

"Most of our runs have come from the top three batsmen this season with not too many from the middle order, and it appears when they fail no one yet has really scored a big total to lift the side.

"Matt Camp and Liam Banfield both bowled well, and in fact if Liam had held on to a catch off his own bowling to dismiss Griffiths, things might have been different, but we need to improve at Wimborne this Saturday."

delayed the start of this game, and although the wicket was unquestionably wet, with improving forecast, the captain's delayed the game an hour to allow the pitch to dry out.

Cerne winning the toss predictably inserted the hosts on what proved to be a challenging surface in a game reduced to 35 overs. Beaminster opener's Fred Everitt (19) and Jack Walklett (25) played with determination and skill to negotiate the opening overs, but Everitt's dismissal sparked a collapse as Beaminster went from 50-0 to 66-5.

Only Ross Baker (47) was able to offer resistance, smashing a succession of boundaries, while at the other end wickets tumbled. With overs and wickets running out, Baker was the last man out in the penultimate over attempting another boundary as Beaminster were dismissed for 121 all out.

In reply, Jack Walklett (1-33) was the first bowler to strike when Rich Runyard took a well judged catch on the boundary to dismiss Ollie Downey (26) with the score on 29. With Baker (1-20) also taking the wicket of Adam Barrett after another fine catch by Adam Herring at slip, the home team had a slim opportunity to cause an upset. However, in bright sunshine, in form batsman Neil Kellaway (59 not out) guided the league leaders home in the 27th over after playing positively and seizing on any loose deliveries. Only one further wicket was taken by off spinner Mark Barber (1-30) as Cerne won comfortably by 7 wickets with nine overs to spare.

Cattistock / Weymouth 2nd
Cattistock 144-8 beat Weymouth 2nd 140 all out by 2 wickets

Cattistock's scorer Richard Langford called his side's victory, "the great escape", after they overcame Weymouth 2nd's in a game delayed 50 minutes and reduced to 38 overs because of heavy rain at lunchtime. Fortunately the new covers installed pre-season did the job, and winning the toss, Ben Golledge invited the visitors to bat.

After seven overs Weymouth were 24-3 but a stand of 49 between Martin Jones (37) and Pete Gordon (8) steadied the ship, Jones making the most of being dropped off Martin Langford's (3-36) first ball of his sixth over by scoring 22 off the other five.

Only Ryan Sers (31) batting at seven showed much resistance, as the visitors were bowled out for 140 with Bradley Mullins taking 2-9.

Like last week, Cattistock's top order that have been so strong this season, collapsed, with Steve Tucker, Mike White and Langford all back in the pavilion after three overs and the score 4-3.

However Billy Walbridge (38) took control of the situation and with useful stand with Jon Legg (13), Golledge (19) and Bradley Damon (27 not out), saw Cattistock maintain second place; Graham Puckett (3-31) the best of the Weymouth bowlers.

2ND 78 ALL OUT BY 8 WICKETS

THUNDER, lightning and rain prior to the game did not stop an emphatic eight wicket victory for Charlton Down in which 18-year-old Sam Roles produced an excellent all round performance, taking 5 wickets for only four runs, a catch, and then smashing and unbeaten 62 not out.

Charlton Down winning the toss, soon had the first Witchampton batsman back in the pavilion with only four runs on the board. Rich Fagence (2-15) who showed how important it is to have experience in a team of predominately young and improving players learning their trade by only conceded 15 runs from his seven overs, taking a smart return catch.

A double strike by 16-year-old Matt Stevens saw his 14-year-old brother, Dan, on debut, take a towering catch at deep cover which unfortunately rebounded off his nose and saw him leave the field with a bloody nose. Fagence struck again to bowl the dangerous hard hitting Vaughan to leave the score on 22-4 after only four overs.

Buller and Coomer steadied the innings and took the score to 59 before the introduction of Roles (5-4) who tempted Buller (24) to drive the ball straight to the returning Dan Stevens at cover. Kim Park bowled at a hostile pace off a reduced run up giving the batsman a lot to think about and in the next over removed Coomer to fantastic one handed diving catch behind the stumps by Matt Venn. 60-6 soon became 62-9 as Roles bowled the next three Witchampton batsmen in one over. Fittingly it was Roles who had the last batsman caught by Dan Stevens, taking a hat trick of catches on debut and who was also unlucky not to pick up a wicket as he beat the bat with his reverse swing bowling late on, only conceding four runs from his two overs.

The Charlton Down run chase was completed in the 15th over as Roles punished any ball which was slightly off line. Roles stroked ten boundaries all around the wicket and came to his fifty in only 37 balls as he ended 62 not out. Luke and Nick Voss aided the run chase playing sensibly farming the strike to the in-form Roles.

Captain Pete Tucker said "I was concerned with the horrendous weather that we had had in the morning that we might not get a game in. However all credit to the Witchampton team; they were as keen as us to play some cricket. Obviously, Sam Roles played superbly and produced a match winning performance but it was great to see young Dan Stevens make his debut and take three excellent catches and bowl with good control.

"Matt Venn who has stepped into the team over the holiday period and produced a brilliant low one handed dive, gave a great display behind the stump, whilst the tight experienced bowling from Rich Fagence set the tone of the teams bowling performance; what a role model to have in any team."

Beaminster's score would have been paltry had it not been for a last wicket stand between young Leo Gurd (8) who held his end well, and last man Scott Nottley, father of Jason, who was making his debut. His 18 runs and extras which totalled 26 swelled the visitors total to 79 all out.

HENSTRIDGE 137-4 BEAT SYMENE 135-9
BY 6 WICKETS

DESPITE the result, Symene contained unbeaten leaders Henstridge for big periods of this game and could have sprung a surprise.

Batting first, Mark Smith and Nick Skyrme (10) got the Symondsburys outfit off to a great start with an opening stand of 57 in just 12 overs, before Smith whose aggressive batting saw him hit ten 4's in his 53, took the score to 95 together with Phil Hawkins (20).

However the introduction of spinners Gerry Swinburn (3-12) and Isaac Koshy (2-14 from 8 overs) slowed their progress with only 19 scored off the next 10 overs, and eventually Symene limped to 135-9 from their 40 over allocation.

In reply Henstridge were contained by the opening bowling attack, particularly Ollie Lee who only conceded 13 and picked up a wicket in his eight overs, and after 14 overs were 31-1.

Although opening bat Paul Travers, who carried his bat for 42 not out, stuck to the policy, Ben Fryer hit a fairly brisk 31 before being well caught by Nigel Toohill on the boundary off Kevin Pragnell (2-13 off 5 overs).

However they reached their target in the 32nd over, and one might wonder what might have happened had Symene scored another 30 runs.

Blake success gives selectors headache

DORCHESTER'S Paul Blake has given the British Paralympic Selection Committee a headache ahead of the IPC Athletics European Championships at Swansea next month, following his third place in the Sainsbury Anniversary Games held at Horse Guards Parade on Sunday.

Blake blasted to a new personal best time of 12.46 seconds to beat Beijing Olympic silver medallist Ben Rushmore, and finish just a hundredth of a second behind London 2012 100m silver medallist Graeme Ballard.

With the 1500m and 800m races having been deleted from the IPC programme for the 2016 Rio Olympics, 24-year-old Blake has had to focus on the sprint races (100m/200m) as well as the 400m for which he won silver in London.

The race on Sunday was won by T37 athlete Rhys Jones in a time of 11.99 seconds, but the others are in the T36 class and vying against each other for selection in Wales. With the selectors having met on Monday, the athletes should know by today (Wednesday) whether they have been chosen, and Blake's performance would have been a timely reminder to them.

Speaking with View Sport ahead of the decision, Blake, who hopes he will be selected for the 400m's said: "Graeme is a sprinter and I would suspect that he will get one of the places in both of the sprint races. Ben won bronze in the London 200m and I would think that he might get the second spot there, but I have beaten Rushmore four times this season now in the 100m, all relatively easily, so I am hoping the selectors will go with the form and pick me."

Blake thought he had blown his chances coming into the Anniversary Games when he ran a poor race in Cheltenham a couple of weeks ago.

"I ran appallingly and thought that I had blown my chances, and so I came into Sunday's race low in confidence, but I'm really pleased with my performance in running a PB."

Blake believes that given the chance he can beat Ballard at the Europeans, which are being held between August 18th and the 23rd.

"I am getting stronger all the time, and was right on his shoulder on Sunday and believe that I will beat him at Swansea given the chance."

A cheque for £2500 was also presented to the Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance from fundraising following a charity ball held earlier in the season.

Pre-season Football

Terras good pre-season form continues

WEYMOUTH earned a very creditable 2-2 draw at home to Plymouth Argyle at the Bob Lucas Stadium on Saturday to continue their good pre-season form.

Having drawn with a Royal Marines representative side before easy victories over Guernsey and Chard Town, the twice led the League Two outfit in an entertaining game that saw new signing Ed Palmer play over an hour after signing on non-contract terms.

The Terras took the lead on 8 minutes when Chris Shepherd took advantage of some slack marking on the edge of the box to turn and swivel before firing a left foot shot across keeper James Bittner into the far corner.

Six minutes later the Pilgrims were level when a clumsy challenge by trialist Jordan Copp on Aaron Bentley, saw Nathan Thomas send Jason Matthews the wrong way from the penalty spot.

Stewart Yetton restored Weymouth's lead just before the half hour when he fired beyond Bitton after Shane Krac had dispossessed a Plymouth defender and cut the ball back to him.

Plymouth equalised once again on 56 minutes when trialist keeper Kyle Moore having produced a good save couldn't hold on to the ball as it was played back into Kelvin Mellor and allowed the ball to trickle over the line.

Cherries lead Magpies a merry dance

WHEN Phil Simkin knew AFC Bournemouth' manager was bringing down his full Championship side to play the Magpies in last Saturday's friendly, he was only expecting them to play for 45 minutes and perhaps show the crowd some exhibition football before making way for the development squad.

Cherries manager Eddie Howe obviously had not read the script and with pre-season training well underway and his side reaching full fitness after the summer recess, he wasn't going to miss the opportunity of enforcing their need to be ruthless at every opportunity.

And so it proved as the side that just missed out on a play-off spot for promotion to the Premier League ripped Dorchester apart with a slick, controlled display that saw Bournemouth score eight by the interval.

Howe finally relented on the hour by changing several players. However these were not the Cherries youngsters but the rest of the first team squad with players like Steve Cook, Junior Stanislas and Marc Pugh to name a few, fresh bodies that put the tiring Magpies who had been chasing shadows all afternoon, under more pressure.

Whilst a bumper crowd of over 900 enjoyed watching Bournemouth's silky skills as they added three more in the second half, there was a distinct feeling of sympathy for the Magpies who just could not get near their opponents.

The tempo was set after just 76 seconds when Nick Crittenden's slip on the edge of the box was pounced on by Harry Arter who rifled his shot in the bottom corner before keeper Alan Walker-Harris could move.

The keeper who went on to make at least six more outstanding saves in the first half before being substituted could not be faulted for any of the goals such was the clinical finishing of the Cherries.

Yann Kermorgant who scored four, opened his account by passing a nonchalant 20 yard effort into the same corner before Matt Ritchie delicately directed his side-footed volley from a cross just inside the left hand post to make it three on 14 minutes.

Ritchie added a fourth from close range after Nathan Walker had blocked a first effort on the line, and Kermorgant sent Walker-Harris the wrong way from the spot after the Magpies skipper had handled, to make it five inside half an hour.

The Frenchman completed his hat trick with a superb swivelling volley from 12 yards before the experienced Brett Pitman showed what a good striker he is by poaching two more before the break.

Kermorgant added his fourth with a curling free kick soon after the break, giving substitute keeper Shane Murphy, who also made some smart saves, no chance. Sub Callum Wilson made it double figures with a simple goal from Cherries skipper Simon Francis's cut back before another replacement Ben Whitfield completed the scoring two minute from the end.

Try as Dorchester did, they could not match their opponents in any way and the nearest to goal they got was two Dan Smith shots which both went well wide.

Dorchester had better luck four days earlier when they drew 1-1 with Gosport Borough. Although the visitors had most of the play and chances early on with Walker-Harris once again in superb form, Dorchester recovered from a shaky start which saw Shane Ramsey smash his side into a 19th minute lead to equalise just before the hour when Boro keeper Nathan Ashmore let Alex Godfrey's 20 yard shot slip through his hands and roll over the line.

School's gig racing championships a great success

TEACHERS and pupils were so enthusiastic about the first Dorset Schools Gig Racing Championships hosted by Weymouth Rowing Club recently, that there is already talk of it becoming an annual fixture in their sporting calendar. Having discovered just how much fun gig rowing can be, many of the youngsters will continue to uphold the traditions of gig rowing by joining the youth section of Weymouth, Portland or Bridport rowing clubs.

The event that attracted 54 young rowers from Thomas Hardy, Beaminster, Sir John Colfox, Wey Valley, Budmouth, All Saints, IPACA and St Osmund's schools.

Having completed a "Six Week Learn to Row" course at their local club, the schools' crews applied their newly gained skills to some fiercely competitive racing over a 750-metre course in Weymouth Bay.

The Mixed Under 14s final was an exciting close race with Thomas Hardy School storming to the finish line in exactly three minutes, a time that was just four seconds less than Budmouth boys who rowed to victory in the Under 14 boys race. Wey Valley girls were worthy winners of the Under 14 girl's trophy. Junior/Youth Co-ordinators are Bree Roche (Weymouth) bre-naroch@btconnect.com, Tony

Boyle (Portland) 07877 084903 and Michelle Tiffin (Bridport) rowingcaptain@bridportrowingclub.co.uk
